Joy Gano Announces Resignation Due to Health Issue

19.12.05 Didsbury, AB – Today, Mountain View County Councillor (Division 2) Joy Gano, announced her resignation effective immediately. The move is based on a pressing health issue.

“This has been an extremely difficult decision for me personally and for my family,” says Joy Gano. “I took on the position of Councillor with enthusiasm and the full intention of making a solid contribution during my term. I now find that I must deal with a health issue that requires my full and undivided attention.”

In accepting Mrs. Gano’s resignation, Reeve Al Kemmere commented, “This is a sad day for our County, but each and every one of us – Council and Staff alike, respect and support Joy and her family for having made this courageous decision. Family and health come first – period.”

A new by election will be scheduled. Details will be determined in the New Year.
